

THE TIGER

DEDICATION

We dedicate this yearbook to the loving memory of Donald Coslet. He was our friend, benefactor, and teacher; and we, the students of New London High School, will remember him always with kindest regard.

PROPHECY

The date is 1980. Things have changed since 1958 when WILLIS BOZARTH graduated. We now find him about to make a change in routine and fly around the world instead of his usual trip around the fourth moon of Jupiter. We see him flying over the territory which used to be called Iowa. The entire Midwest became wilderness with the great migration to the metropolis and big cities in 1974. The weather is bad, and "Bozy" is going to have to make an emergency landing near his old town until it blows over. He lands his P-6666B on a small river near some old ruins. He sees a movement in the bushes along the bank! Then a face! He immediately recognizes it as an old classmate--WALTER WALZ. He quickly goes to meet him; and later in his small quaint house in the once thriving city and empire of Lowell, which the Walz's dominated, they talk of old times. When the migration to the cities took place, Walter refused to give up his empire. Walter pours questions to "Bozy" about the civilization and his old classmates. "Bozy" willingly relates the following story:

"LARRY FARNSWORTH" and his accomplice "BOB McCARL" were exiled when they were caught bootlegging Chevis to the motorists after they were banned from public use as hazzards on the highways in 1976.

"DIANNE WARTH" now flies her own DC84 transport between India and New York. Recently she crashed somewhere in Africa. She radioed back that she had found the most renown mission-ary of the decade, "LINDA OETKEN," working among the more civilized cannibals.

"DICK LENZ" and "DENNIS McAVOY" went together and now operate the L & M Nursery Rhymes Co. Dennis writes and Dick illustrates. One of their better known ones is:

Humpty Dumpty stepped on the gas,
Around the truck he tried to pass.
But Humpty Dumpty didn't croak--
You see he had a hard boiled yolk.

"SHIRLEY KUHLENBECK" is the operator of the largest girls' camp in the country. She is very wealthy from her enterprise. At the entrance to her camp is the sign, "Camp She-She For Girls Six to Sixty."

"DALE BRISSY" has become the world's foremost authority on women's hair styles. His book, THE THERAPEUTIC VALUE OF THE PERMANENT WAVE ON THE PHYSIC BEING, is a classic.

"JEAN WALKER" has won great fame over the radio. For a long period of years she has been mistress of ceremonies on the Schmaltz Bunion Cure Program better known as the "Puffed Feet Hour."

"JIM GRIMM" has returned from one of numerous trips to Africa. He has brought back alive a rare, genuine, 6-foot, yellow-haired, hair-lipped Ubangi.

"DONNA UNDERWOOD" is sanitary engineer and chief garbage collector of San Quentin. She is also a well-known authoress of the book, EAT WELL AND GROW SLIM.

"IVA BOECKER" is a famous columnist for the Super Duper Snooper of Dodge City, Kansas. She and famous Wyatt "BILL DENNEY" practically control the Greasy Mugg Saloon.

"ROBERT HAMILTON" now wrestles under the name of "Tiny Bob" as a midget wrestler (which included 80 pounds and under). In the winter he plays for the Globetrotters.

"LUELLE HORN" and "YVONNE CARPENTER" are waitresses in the first and only space restaurant.

"OPAL LYON" following in her teacher's footsteps, Miss Pearson, became a typing teacher. She hopes to make a fortune at it as did her predecessor.

"WANDA RICHENBERGER" is a top saleswoman who sells bobby pins to bald-headed women in the small town of Pimple, Idaho.

"JUDY ELDER" is now living lavishly in a New York penthouse. While there, she invented rubber teeth. Her advertising slogan is, "Use Elder's rubber teeth and always have a snappy come-back."

"CAROL GIPPLE" is now a yodeler in the Swiss Alps. She went to Switzerland to take up making Cuckoo clocks; but because she became so fascinated with yodeling, she made it her life's work. She has made a fortune out of yodeling: Sensitive people pay her huge sums to remain silent.

"I've managed to keep track of all the old group except "WANDA HALE," I just can't trace her."

With that statement Walt calls out, "Darling come here." In the doorway appears Wanda Walz and her six children completing the picture of the class of 1958.

WILL

We, the Seniors of the New London Community High, of the year 1958, being sound in mind and healthy in body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling any and all will or wills by us made heretofore.

I, BOB McCARL, will my quiet and timid nature to Leona Lyon in hope she won't abuse it.

I, WILLIS BOZARTH, give my halo and wings to Ronnie Lenz. Take care Ronnie, they tarnish easily.

I, BOB HAMILTON, will my manly physique and slightly used "Charles Atlas Body Building Equipment" to Bill Broeker. It does wonders--look at me.

To Don Angstead, I, DENNIS McAVOY, will my guitar and blue suede shoes. Wow 'em Don!

I, DONNA UNDERWOOD, will my ability to attract boys, to Mary Hillard. All it takes is dyed red hair and a swing--to put on your back porch.

I, the blushing red rose of the Senior class, WALTER WALZ, will this ability to Bill Thompson, who doesn't have it.

I, JEAN WALKER, will my ability to get along with worms, grasshoppers, and boys in Biology class to Barbara Denney.

To Larry Fane, JUDY ELDER wills her trips to Mt. Pleasant to get her glasses fixed. Judy hopes you take better care of your glasses.

I, CAROL GIPPLE, will my nickname "Zsa Zsa" to Veronda Carter. Carol hopes you can live up to it as she has.

I, SHIRLEY KUHLENBECK, will my noon-hours to Barbara Hill and Linda Synnes. Don't fall down the steps.

I, DIANNE WARTH, will my "No Curl Home Permanent" to Marcia Martin. You better let your hair grow out first Marcia.

I, IVA BOECKER, the jewel of the Senior class, will my long eyelashes to Ken Nehring. They'll really get those girls Ken.

I, BILL DENNEY, will my dainty and trim figure to Gary Abrisz and Karen McCabe. You've got the trim shape, but what about the height.

I, DICK LENZ, do will my trombone to "Windy" Bob Burkhart who can never think of anything to say, so say it with music.

I, DALE BRISSEY, will my nickname "Parrot" and straight hair to Jim Thrash.

To Errol Workman and Bill Warth, I, OPAL LYON, will my careful driving and ten points. If you expect to see 90, don't look for it on the speedometer.

I, WANDARICHENBERGER, will my talking ability and tall tales to Daryl Brown. You are going to have to stay awake in study hall to keep ahead of me.

I, LINDA OETKEN, will my sturdy well-used pencil stub to Pat Petzinger and Dorothy Hoel let's really work up a sweat in the office next year girls.

I, YVONNE CARPENTER, will my bicycle to Judy Williams and Bruce Elder. You don't need a license and you can save your points.

To Mac Jones and Carroll Reid, I, WANDA JEAN HALE, will my eyelash curler. Keep up the curls boys.

I, LARRY FARNSWORTH, will my milk route to Bob Snyder, who loves the early hours.

I, JIM GRIMM, will my late hours to Bob Johnson and Wendell Linder, take advantage of it, you're only young once.

I, LUELLA HORN, will my artistic ability to Linda Kuhlénbeck and Sylvia Layman. Let's see if you girls can draw yourself a husband.

The New London Tigers enjoyed a most successful season, falling only to a powerful Mt. Vernon team in the second game of the year. Their 25-6 defeat did not overcome the Tigers spirit, and they came back to win the next five games straight and take an undisputed second place in the tough Southeast Iowa Hawkeye Conference. Improvement came with each game played, and at the end of the year the team was rewarded by placing 7 men on the All-Conference teams. Congratulations to Coaches Rhodes and Coslet and the team for a fine season!

The Great team work and a fine coaching job by Mr. Elder were the reasons that the Tigerettes ended the season with fourteen wins and four loses. They placed second in the sectionals, something which has never been achieved by any other N. L. girls team. Because of eight victories and no losses in the S.E.I. conference, they received the conference first place trophy.

This is an outstanding record of which all members of N.L.H.S. can be proud.

The Fresh-Soph basketball team repeated as champions of the S.E.I. conference for the second straight year. Their only defeat of the season came at the hands of Wayland on Wayland's home court. The Fresh-Soph team came back to go undefeated for the rest of the season beating Wayland in the return game at N.L. We congratulate Coach David Smith and his fine Fresh-Soph team for their splendid season.
